Local Attorney Joins Elite Certification in Elder Law

Tucson, AZ - The National Elder Law Foundation (NELF) – the only organization approved by the American Bar Association to offer certification in the area of elder law – has announced that Linda M. Strohschein of St. Charles, Illinois, has successfully completed its examination leading to such certification.

Certification in elder law – one of the fastest growing fields in the legal profession – will provide a measure of assurance to the public that the attorney has an in-depth working knowledge of the legal issues that impact the elderly.

Linda M. Strohschein, of the Strohschein Law Group in St. Charles, Illinois is now a Certified Elder Law Attorney. She has practiced elder law for nearly 15 years and focuses her practice on Estate and Long Term Care Planning, Guardianship, Estate and Trust Administration, and Probate Litigation. Ms. Strohschein received her B.A. from George Mason University and her J.D. from the John Marshall Law School. She is a frequent speaker on related topics and a current member of the Probate Practice and Trust Law Committees of the Chicago Bar Association and the Kane County Bar Association. She is a member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, the Life Care Planning Law Firms Association, the Chicago Estate Planning Council and the Fox Valley Estate Planning Council. Ms. Strohschein is also a member of the board of Directors of DayOne Reliance, in Batavia, Illinois, which offers OBRA trust services for seniors and disabled persons.

For more information please contact the Strohschein Law Group at (630) 377-3241.
